Sub:- Requesting a liberal grant for conducting the AAFI Winter Training Camp for athletes and Coaches under the auspices of the Mysore State Amateur Athletic Association

I am proud to bring it to your kind notice that the Amateur Athletic Federation of India has very kindly approved the proposal of the Mysore State Amateur Athletic Association to conduct the AAFI Winter Training Camp for the benefit of athletes and coaches from December 18, 1955 to January 7, 1956 The following Coaches will be assisting the Association:-

1 Mr Lloyd Winter (Chief Coach, San Jose State College, U S A.)
2 Mr George Rider (Chief Coach, Miami University, U S A)
3 Mr M C Dhawan (Hon Secretary of the AAFI)
4 Mr Kuldip Singh (Patiala)
5 Mr A B Krishnaswamy (Madras)
6 Mr V Suryanarayana (Vijayawada)

By this more than 100 coaches and athletes drawn from various schools and colleges will be benefitted and it is indeed an unique opportunity for the athletes and coaches of this beautiful City

I would like to remind you of your Corporation's great service to the state, in general and to the City, in particular, when in 1953, you conducted a similar Camp at a cost of Rs 1500/- under the able guidance of Mr Ted Arnold, an American Coach of the YMCA College, Madras, for a period of 3 weeks Recently you have organised a similar training course in Physical Education for the benefit of Class room teachers All these clearly shows your great interest to promote Sports and athletics in this great City This course will benefit majority of athletes and Coaches of this City, who will all be helpful in your endeavour to promote athletics in the City.

To organise this course it will cost nearly 3000 and this infant association cannot afford

Hence, I request you kindly to make a liberal grant from the Corporation and thus encourage in our endeavour to make this unique Camp, a success

Thanking you,
